9. Quote Southwild 25 augustus - 11 september

**Regarding the SWP (SouthWild Pantanal) inquiries:

Yes, I've made arrangements for an English-speaking guide to accompany them.

In the morning, they can visit the howler monkeys, go on a boat excursion, and then, with the guide's assistance, choose between visiting either the Monkey Tower or the Jabirus Tower and stay there for as long as they'd like. After lunch, they can explore the walking trails. Before dinner, they have the option to visit the ocelot hiding place.

**As for the updated program, I'd like to know if they have a list of species they don't want to miss. This way, I can tailor the program accordingly.

**Regarding Wolf Camp, the local guide suggested visiting it in August as there's a risk of fires in September, which could drive off the wolves.

Below is the update program:

Day 1 – Barreiras – Wolf Camp – August 25, 2024

Upon landing at Barreiras, you will be met by Leilda, the adult daughter of the great wildlife expert, Lourival Lima, the project director. Leilda has guided in English for years now, and although her English is not perfect, she knows the wildlife so well that we are happy to work with her!. Drive in an air-conditioned vehicle for 150 miles north on an asphalt road to the scenic cliff and valley region of Wolf Camps. Lunch on your own before flying. Dinner included at Wolf Valley Camp.

Overnight at Wolf Valley Camp (-/-/D)

Day 2 –Wolf Valley Camp - Wolf Cliffs Camp – August 26, 2024

Coffee and light breakfast are served 0430h (4:30 am). Daybreak is at 5:30 am, and we aim to be seated in the Hyacinth “blind” (or “hide”) by that time, before the first macaws arrive to forage on rock-hard palm nuts at this dry forest clearing. The spacious blind can hold up to 10 people, with eight front row seats, and it looks out upon a traditional feeding site for a large flock of Hyacinth Macaws. We watch them feed on their staple, namely golf-ball-sized palm nuts, and playfully jockey for position on favorite perches in the trees that surround the blind. The birds usually arrive at 6 a.m. and leave by 8:30 or 9 a.m. We then return to camp for a full, relaxing breakfast.

After breakfast, we will embark on a 25 km, 50-min-long drive into the heart of the 1.7-million-acre Parnaíba River Headwaters National Park. Here, you'll have the opportunity to marvel at the stunning cliff scenery and seek out various bird species, including Burrowing Owls, Red-legged Seriemas, Greater Rheas, and nesting Blue-and-Yellow Macaws. In the evening, there's a good chance of encountering the beautiful and endangered Maned Wolf, which holds the title of the tallest wild canid in the world (though not the heaviest!).

Our accommodation for the night will be at SouthWild Wolf Cliffs Camp, the sole lodging within the national park. You'll stay in rustic but spacious bungalows, each equipped with en suite facilities.

Overnight at Wolf Cliffs Camp (B/L/D)

Day 3, 4 –Wolf Camp – August 27, 28, 2024

The guests may decide to stay at Wolf Cliffs Camp another night, we might drive back to the Valley Camp. In some years, such as 2023, the wolf viewing is better at Wolf Valley Camp than at Wolf Cliffs Camp. The Wolf Valley Camp normally features good opportunities to view incredibly-cute Tufted-eared Marmosets and some fancy birds at a feeder at camp.

Overnight at Wolf Valley Camp (B/L/D)

Day 5, 6 –Wolf Valley Camp – August 29, 30, 2024

On this day, we will drive 30 minutes from WVC to a small rocky gorge to view up close a troop of world-famous Bearded Capuchins, which use their own specially-selected igneous hammer rocks to smash open the very same kind of rock-hard, nutritious palm nuts that the Hyacinth Macaws love to eat. Viewing these nut-cracking monkeys is yet another SouthWild exclusive and delights our visitors. This nut-cracking behavior is the world's most complex tool use by any monkey species.

In the afternoon, we return to Wolf Valley Camp or perhaps to Wolf Cliffs Camp for one last visit with the Hyacinth Macaws or the Maned Wolves, respectively, though in 2024, the wolves might prove to be better at WVC than at WCC.

Overnight at Wolf Valley or Cliffs Camp (B/L/D)

Day 7 –Wolf Camp – Barreiras – Belo Horizonte - Cuiaba – August 31, 2024

After breakfast, a chance to enjoy wildlife such as the Tufted-eared Marmosets or the Celeus woodpecker near the camp and then transfer 3.5 h to Barreiras airport (BRA) for your return flight to Cuiaba (CGB) the return is through Belo Horizonte (CNF). We suggest Azul flight number 5023, which departs Barreiras (BRA) at 1050h and arrives at Belo Horizonte (CNF) at 1305h. Stop 1h30m, connecting with Flight number 4256, which departs Belo Horizonte (CNF) at 1435h arriving Cuiaba at 1550h.

Upon arrival, take the free shuttle to the Hotel Slaviero.

Overnight at Hotel Slaviero ( B/-/-)

Day 8 – Cuiaba – Piuval - September 1, 2024

Breakfast and then leave the lodge to drive 1.5h to Pousada Piuval.

Pousada Piuval is located 110 km from Cuiabá and 10 km from Poconé - MT. It is the first inn on the Transpantaneira Highway.

Breakfast. Activities at the lodge, particularly boat rides on the Pixaim River to see abundant birdlife and the Ocelot Experience, and now, a new attraction. There are 15 species of Howler Monkeys in the world, and they are distributed from southern Mexico to SE Brazil. Despite the huge distribution of these howler species, there is only one location where you predictably can watch any of the 15 species from up close, and that is SWP. In our case, the species is the beautiful Black-and-Gold Howler Monkey. On 9 out of 10 mornings, a family of these howlers shows up between 6:30 am and 8:00 am at specific trees, and we can view them from only 5-6 meters for 10-15 minutes. Each morning, our howler research assistants wait in the forest, and if they see howlers approaching, they radio to the lodge, and guests have to be ready to board a boat for a 4-minute ride followed by a 5 minute walk.

10. Quote Southwild 25 augustus - 11 september

**Regarding the SWP (SouthWild Pantanal) inquiries:

Yes, I've made arrangements for an English-speaking guide to accompany them.

In the morning, they can visit the howler monkeys, go on a boat excursion, and then, with the guide's assistance, choose between visiting either the Monkey Tower or the Jabirus Tower and stay there for as long as they'd like. After lunch, they can explore the walking trails. Before dinner, they have the option to visit the ocelot hiding place.

**As for the updated program, I'd like to know if they have a list of species they don't want to miss. This way, I can tailor the program accordingly.

**Regarding Wolf Camp, the local guide suggested visiting it in August as there's a risk of fires in September, which could drive off the wolves.

Below is the update program:

Day 1 – Barreiras – Wolf Camp – August 25, 2024

Upon landing at Barreiras, you will be met by Leilda, the adult daughter of the great wildlife expert, Lourival Lima, the project director. Leilda has guided in English for years now, and although her English is not perfect, she knows the wildlife so well that we are happy to work with her!. Drive in an air-conditioned vehicle for 150 miles north on an asphalt road to the scenic cliff and valley region of Wolf Camps. Lunch on your own before flying. Dinner included at Wolf Valley Camp.

Overnight at Wolf Valley Camp (-/-/D)

Day 2 – Wolf Valley Camp - Wolf Cliffs Camp – August 26, 2024

Coffee and light breakfast are served 0430h (4:30 am). Daybreak is at 5:30 am, and we aim to be seated in the Hyacinth “blind” (or “hide”) by that time, before the first macaws arrive to forage on rock-hard palm nuts at this dry forest clearing. The spacious blind can hold up to 10 people, with eight front row seats, and it looks out upon a traditional feeding site for a large flock of Hyacinth Macaws. We watch them feed on their staple, namely golf-ball-sized palm nuts, and playfully jockey for position on favorite perches in the trees that surround the blind. The birds usually arrive at 6 a.m. and leave by 8:30 or 9 a.m. We then return to camp for a full, relaxing breakfast.

After breakfast, we will embark on a 25 km, 50-min-long drive into the heart of the 1.7-million-acre Parnaíba River Headwaters National Park. Here, you'll have the opportunity to marvel at the stunning cliff scenery and seek out various bird species, including Burrowing Owls, Red-legged Seriemas, Greater Rheas, and nesting Blue-and-Yellow Macaws.

In the evening, there's a good chance of encountering the beautiful and endangered Maned Wolf, which holds the title of the tallest wild canid in the world (though not the heaviest!).

Our accommodation for the night will be at SouthWild Wolf Cliffs Camp, the sole lodging within the national park. You'll stay in rustic but spacious bungalows, each equipped with en suite facilities.

Overnight at Wolf Cliffs Camp (B/L/D)

Day 3, 4 – Wolf Camp – August 27, 28, 2024

The guests may decide to stay at Wolf Cliffs Camp another night, we might drive back to the Valley Camp. In some years, such as 2023, the wolf viewing is better at Wolf Valley Camp than at Wolf Cliffs Camp. The Wolf Valley Camp normally features good opportunities to view incredibly-cute Tufted-eared Marmosets and some fancy birds at a feeder at camp.

Overnight at Wolf Valley Camp (B/L/D)

Day 5, 6 – Wolf Valley Camp – August 29, 30, 2024

On this day, we will drive 30 minutes from WVC to a small rocky gorge to view up close a troop of world-famous Bearded Capuchins, which use their own specially-selected igneous hammer rocks to smash open the very same kind of rock-hard, nutritious palm nuts that the Hyacinth Macaws love to eat. Viewing these nut-cracking monkeys is yet another SouthWild exclusive and delights our visitors. This nut-cracking behavior is the world's most complex tool use by any monkey species.

In the afternoon, we return to Wolf Valley Camp or perhaps to Wolf Cliffs Camp for one last visit with the Hyacinth Macaws or the Maned Wolves, respectively, though in 2024, the wolves might prove to be better at WVC than at WCC.

Day 7 – Wolf Camp – Barreiras – Belo Horizonte - Cuiaba – August 31, 2024

After breakfast, a chance to enjoy wildlife such as the Tufted-eared Marmosets or the Celeus woodpecker near the camp and then transfer 3.5 h to Barreiras airport (BRA) for your return flight to Cuiaba (CGB) the return is through Belo Horizonte (CNF). We suggest Azul flight number 5023, which departs Barreiras (BRA) at 1050h and arrives at Belo Horizonte (CNF) at 1305h. Stop 1h30m, connecting with Flight number 4256, which departs Belo Horizonte (CNF) at 1435h arriving Cuiaba at 1550h.

Upon arrival, take the free shuttle to the Hotel Slaviero.

Overnight at Hotel Slaviero ( B/-/-)

Day 8 – Cuiaba – Piuval - September 1, 2024

**Regarding Wolf Camp, the local guide suggested visiting it in August as there's a risk of fires in September, which could drive off the wolves.

Below is the update program:

Day 1 – Barreiras – Wolf Camp – August 25, 2024

Upon landing at Barreiras, you will be met by Leilda, the adult daughter of the great wildlife expert, Lourival Lima, the project director. Leilda has guided in English for years now, and although her English is not perfect, she knows the wildlife so well that we are happy to work with her!. Drive in an air-conditioned vehicle for 150 miles north on an asphalt road to the scenic cliff and valley region of Wolf Camps. Lunch on your own before flying. Dinner included at Wolf Valley Camp.

Overnight at Wolf Valley Camp (-/-/D)

Day 2 –Wolf Valley Camp - Wolf Cliffs Camp – August 26, 2024

Coffee and light breakfast are served 0430h (4:30 am). Daybreak is at 5:30 am, and we aim to be seated in the Hyacinth “blind” (or “hide”) by that time, before the first macaws arrive to forage on rock-hard palm nuts at this dry forest clearing. The spacious blind can hold up to 10 people, with eight front row seats, and it looks out upon a traditional feeding site for a large flock of Hyacinth Macaws. We watch them feed on their staple, namely golf-ball-sized palm nuts, and playfully jockey for position on favorite perches in the trees that surround the blind. The birds usually arrive at 6 a.m. and leave by 8:30 or 9 a.m. We then return to camp for a full, relaxing breakfast.

After breakfast, we will embark on a 25 km, 50-min-long drive into the heart of the 1.7-million-acre Parnaíba River Headwaters National Park. Here, you'll have the opportunity to marvel at the stunning cliff scenery and seek out various bird species, including Burrowing Owls, Red-legged Seriemas, Greater Rheas, and nesting Blue-and-Yellow Macaws. In the evening, there's a good chance of encountering the beautiful and endangered Maned Wolf, which holds the title of the tallest wild canid in the world (though not the heaviest!).

Viewing these nut-cracking monkeys is yet another SouthWild exclusive and delights our visitors. This nut-cracking behavior is the world's most complex tool use by any monkey species.

In the afternoon, we return to Wolf Valley Camp or perhaps to Wolf Cliffs Camp for one last visit with the Hyacinth Macaws or the Maned Wolves, respectively, though in 2024, the wolves might prove to be better at WVC than at WCC.

Despite the huge distribution of these howler species, there is only one location where you predictably can watch any of the 15 species from up close, and that is SWP. In our case, the species is the beautiful Black-and-Gold Howler Monkey. On 9 out of 10 mornings, a family of these howlers shows up between 6:30 am and 8:00 am at specific trees, and we can view them from only 5-6 meters for 10-15 minutes. Each morning, our howler research assistants wait in the forest, and if they see howlers approaching, they radio to the lodge, and guests have to be ready to board a boat for a 4-minute ride followed by a 5 minute walk.

15. Quote Southwild 25 augustus - 11 september

**Regarding the SWP (SouthWild Pantanal) inquiries:

Yes, I've made arrangements for an English-speaking guide to accompany them.

In the morning, they can visit the howler monkeys, go on a boat excursion, and then, with the guide's assistance, choose between visiting either the Monkey Tower or the Jabirus Tower and stay there for as long as they'd like. After lunch, they can explore the walking trails. Before dinner, they have the option to visit the ocelot hiding place.

**As for the updated program, I'd like to know if they have a list of species they don't want to miss. This way, I can tailor the program accordingly.

**Regarding Wolf Camp, the local guide suggested visiting it in August as there's a risk of fires in September, which could drive off the wolves.

Below is the update program:

Day 1 – Barreiras – Wolf Camp – August 25, 2024

Upon landing at Barreiras, you will be met by Leilda, the adult daughter of the great wildlife expert, Lourival Lima, the project director. Leilda has guided in English for years now, and although her English is not perfect, she knows the wildlife so well that we are happy to work with her!. Drive in an air-conditioned vehicle for 150 miles north on an asphalt road to the scenic cliff and valley region of Wolf Camps. Lunch on your own before flying. Dinner included at Wolf Valley Camp.

Overnight at Wolf Valley Camp (-/-/D)

Day 2 –Wolf Valley Camp - Wolf Cliffs Camp – August 26, 2024

Coffee and light breakfast are served 0430h (4:30 am). Daybreak is at 5:30 am, and we aim to be seated in the Hyacinth “blind” (or “hide”) by that time, before the first macaws arrive to forage on rock-hard palm nuts at this dry forest clearing. The spacious blind can hold up to 10 people, with eight front row seats, and it looks out upon a traditional feeding site for a large flock of Hyacinth Macaws. We watch them feed on their staple, namely golf-ball-sized palm nuts, and playfully jockey for position on favorite perches in the trees that surround the blind. The birds usually arrive at 6 a.m. and leave by 8:30 or 9 a.m. We then return to camp for a full, relaxing breakfast.

After breakfast, we will embark on a 25 km, 50-min-long drive into the heart of the 1.7-million-acre Parnaíba River Headwaters National Park. Here, you'll have the opportunity to marvel at the stunning cliff scenery and seek out various bird species, including Burrowing Owls, Red-legged Seriemas, Greater Rheas, and nesting Blue-and-Yellow Macaws. In the evening, there's a good chance of encountering the beautiful and endangered Maned Wolf, which holds the title of the tallest wild canid in the world (though not the heaviest!).

Our accommodation for the night will be at SouthWild Wolf Cliffs Camp, the sole lodging within the national park. You'll stay in rustic but spacious bungalows, each equipped with en suite facilities.

Day 3, 4 –Wolf Camp – August 27, 28, 2024

The guests may decide to stay at Wolf Cliffs Camp another night, we might drive back to the Valley Camp. In some years, such as 2023, the wolf viewing is better at Wolf Valley Camp than at Wolf Cliffs Camp. The Wolf Valley Camp normally features good opportunities to view incredibly-cute Tufted-eared Marmosets and some fancy birds at a feeder at camp.

Overnight at Wolf Valley Camp (B/L/D)

Day 5, 6 –Wolf Valley Camp – August 29, 30, 2024

On this day, we will drive 30 minutes from WVC to a small rocky gorge to view up close a troop of world-famous Bearded Capuchins, which use their own specially-selected igneous hammer rocks to smash open the very same kind of rock-hard, nutritious palm nuts that the Hyacinth Macaws love to eat. Viewing these nut-cracking monkeys is yet another SouthWild exclusive and delights our visitors. This nut-cracking behavior is the world's most complex tool use by any monkey species.

In the afternoon, we return to Wolf Valley Camp or perhaps to Wolf Cliffs Camp for one last visit with the Hyacinth Macaws or the Maned Wolves, respectively, though in 2024, the wolves might prove to be better at WVC than at WCC.

Overnight at Wolf Valley or Cliffs Camp (B/L/D)

Day 7 –Wolf Camp – Barreiras – Belo Horizonte - Cuiaba – August 31, 2024

After breakfast, a chance to enjoy wildlife such as the Tufted-eared Marmosets or the Celeus woodpecker near the camp and then transfer 3.5 h to Barreiras airport (BRA) for your return flight to Cuiaba (CGB) the return is through Belo Horizonte (CNF). We suggest Azul flight number 5023, which departs Barreiras (BRA) at 1050h and arrives at Belo Horizonte (CNF) at 1305h. Stop 1h30m, connecting with Flight number 4256, which departs Belo Horizonte (CNF) at 1435h arriving Cuiaba at 1550h.

**Regarding the SWP (SouthWild Pantanal) inquiries:

Yes, I've made arrangements for an English-speaking guide to accompany them.

In the morning, they can visit the howler monkeys, go on a boat excursion, and then, with the guide's assistance, choose between visiting either the Monkey Tower or the Jabirus Tower and stay there for as long as they'd like. After lunch, they can explore the walking trails. Before dinner, they have the option to visit the ocelot hiding place.

20. Quote Southwild 25 augustus - 11 september

**Regarding the SWP (SouthWild Pantanal) inquiries:

Yes, I've made arrangements for an English-speaking guide to accompany them.

In the morning, they can visit the howler monkeys, go on a boat excursion, and then, with the guide's assistance, choose between visiting either the Monkey Tower or the Jabirus Tower and stay there for as long as they'd like. After lunch, they can explore the walking trails. Before dinner, they have the option to visit the ocelot hiding place.

**As for the updated program, I'd like to know if they have a list of species they don't want to miss. This way, I can tailor the program accordingly.

**Regarding Wolf Camp, the local guide suggested visiting it in August as there's a risk of fires in September, which could drive off the wolves.

Below is the update program:

Day 1 – Barreiras – Wolf Camp – August 25, 2024

Upon landing at Barreiras, you will be met by Leilda, the adult daughter of the great wildlife expert, Lourival Lima, the project director. Leilda has guided in English for years now, and although her English is not perfect, she knows the wildlife so well that we are happy to work with her!. Drive in an air-conditioned vehicle for 150 miles north on an asphalt road to the scenic cliff and valley region of Wolf Camps. Lunch on your own before flying. Dinner included at Wolf Valley Camp.

Overnight at Wolf Valley Camp (-/-/D)

Day 2 –Wolf Valley Camp - Wolf Cliffs Camp – August 26, 2024

Coffee and light breakfast are served 0430h (4:30 am). Daybreak is at 5:30 am, and we aim to be seated in the Hyacinth “blind” (or “hide”) by that time, before the first macaws arrive to forage on rock-hard palm nuts at this dry forest clearing. The spacious blind can hold up to 10 people, with eight front row seats, and it looks out upon a traditional feeding site for a large flock of Hyacinth Macaws. We watch them feed on their staple, namely golf-ball-sized palm nuts, and playfully jockey for position on favorite perches in the trees that surround the blind. The birds usually arrive at 6 a.m. and leave by 8:30 or 9 a.m. We then return to camp for a full, relaxing breakfast.

After breakfast, we will embark on a 25 km, 50-min-long drive into the heart of the 1.7-million-acre Parnaíba River Headwaters National Park. Here, you'll have the opportunity to marvel at the stunning cliff scenery and seek out various bird species, including Burrowing Owls, Red-legged Seriemas, Greater Rheas, and nesting Blue-and-Yellow Macaws. In the evening, there's a good chance of encountering the beautiful and endangered Maned Wolf, which holds the title of the tallest wild canid in the world (though not the heaviest!).

Our accommodation for the night will be at SouthWild Wolf Cliffs Camp, the sole lodging within the national park. You'll stay in rustic but spacious bungalows, each equipped with en suite facilities.

Day 3, 4 –Wolf Camp – August 27, 28, 2024

The guests may decide to stay at Wolf Cliffs Camp another night, we might drive back to the Valley Camp. In some years, such as 2023, the wolf viewing is better at Wolf Valley Camp than at Wolf Cliffs Camp. The Wolf Valley Camp normally features good opportunities to view incredibly-cute Tufted-eared Marmosets and some fancy birds at a feeder at camp.

Overnight at Wolf Valley Camp (B/L/D)

Day 5, 6 –Wolf Valley Camp – August 29, 30, 2024

On this day, we will drive 30 minutes from WVC to a small rocky gorge to view up close a troop of world-famous Bearded Capuchins, which use their own specially-selected igneous hammer rocks to smash open the very same kind of rock-hard, nutritious palm nuts that the Hyacinth Macaws love to eat. Viewing these nut-cracking monkeys is yet another SouthWild exclusive and delights our visitors. This nut-cracking behavior is the world's most complex tool use by any monkey species.

In the afternoon, we return to Wolf Valley Camp or perhaps to Wolf Cliffs Camp for one last visit with the Hyacinth Macaws or the Maned Wolves, respectively, though in 2024, the wolves might prove to be better at WVC than at WCC.

Overnight at Wolf Valley or Cliffs Camp (B/L/D)

Day 7 –Wolf Camp – Barreiras – Belo Horizonte - Cuiaba – August 31, 2024

One or the other of those delightful cats comes on 50-85% of the evenings, with the probability varying due to factors that we cannot predict, as those inconsiderate wild cats do not tell us when they plan to pay a visit.

Overnight at SouthWild Pantanal. (B/L/D)

Day 11 : Southwild Pantanal - September 4, 2024

Breakfast. Activities at the lodge, particularly boat rides on the Pixaim River to see abundant birdlife and the Ocelot Experience, and now, a new attraction. Specifically, In February 2024, we inaugurated another SouthWild Global Exclusive, the SouthWild Howler Monkey Experience. There are 15 species of Howler Monkeys in the world, and they are distributed from southern Mexico to SE Brazil. Despite the huge distribution of these howler species, there is only one location where you predictably can watch any of the 15 species from up close, and that is SWP. In our case, the species is the beautiful Black-and-Gold Howler Monkey. On 9 out of 10 mornings, a family of these howlers shows up between 6:30 am and 8:00 am at specific trees, and we can view them from only 5-6 meters for 10-15 minutes. Each morning, our howler research assistants wait in the forest, and if they see howlers approaching, they radio to the lodge, and guests have to be ready to board a boat for a 4-minute ride followed by a 5 minute walk.

23. Quote Southwild 25 augustus - 11 september

**Regarding the SWP (SouthWild Pantanal) inquiries:

Yes, I've made arrangements for an English-speaking guide to accompany them.

In the morning, they can visit the howler monkeys, go on a boat excursion, and then, with the guide's assistance, choose between visiting either the Monkey Tower or the Jabirus Tower and stay there for as long as they'd like. After lunch, they can explore the walking trails. Before dinner, they have the option to visit the ocelot hiding place.

**As for the updated program, I'd like to know if they have a list of species they don't want to miss. This way, I can tailor the program accordingly.

**Regarding Wolf Camp, the local guide suggested visiting it in August as there's a risk of fires in September, which could drive off the wolves.

Below is the update program:

Day 1 – Barreiras – Wolf Camp – August 25, 2024

Upon landing at Barreiras, you will be met by Leilda, the adult daughter of the great wildlife expert, Lourival Lima, the project director. Leilda has guided in English for years now, and although her English is not perfect, she knows the wildlife so well that we are happy to work with her!. Drive in an air-conditioned vehicle for 150 miles north on an asphalt road to the scenic cliff and valley region of Wolf Camps. Lunch on your own before flying. Dinner included at Wolf Valley Camp.

Overnight at Wolf Valley Camp (-/-/D)

Day 2 –Wolf Valley Camp - Wolf Cliffs Camp – August 26, 2024

Coffee and light breakfast are served 0430h (4:30 am). Daybreak is at 5:30 am, and we aim to be seated in the Hyacinth “blind” (or “hide”) by that time, before the first macaws arrive to forage on rock-hard palm nuts at this dry forest clearing. The spacious blind can hold up to 10 people, with eight front row seats, and it looks out upon a traditional feeding site for a large flock of Hyacinth Macaws. We watch them feed on their staple, namely golf-ball-sized palm nuts, and playfully jockey for position on favorite perches in the trees that surround the blind. The birds usually arrive at 6 a.m. and leave by 8:30 or 9 a.m. We then return to camp for a full, relaxing breakfast.

After breakfast, we will embark on a 25 km, 50-min-long drive into the heart of the 1.7-million-acre Parnaíba River Headwaters National Park. Here, you'll have the opportunity to marvel at the stunning cliff scenery and seek out various bird species, including Burrowing Owls, Red-legged Seriemas, Greater Rheas, and nesting Blue-and-Yellow Macaws. In the evening, there's a good chance of encountering the beautiful and endangered Maned Wolf, which holds the title of the tallest wild canid in the world (though not the heaviest!).

Our accommodation for the night will be at SouthWild Wolf Cliffs Camp, the sole lodging within the national park. You'll stay in rustic but spacious bungalows, each equipped with en suite facilities.

Day 3, 4 –Wolf Camp – August 27, 28, 2024

The guests may decide to stay at Wolf Cliffs Camp another night, we might drive back to the Valley Camp. In some years, such as 2023, the wolf viewing is better at Wolf Valley Camp than at Wolf Cliffs Camp. The Wolf Valley Camp normally features good opportunities to view incredibly-cute Tufted-eared Marmosets and some fancy birds at a feeder at camp.

Overnight at Wolf Valley Camp (B/L/D)

Day 5, 6 –Wolf Valley Camp – August 29, 30, 2024

On this day, we will drive 30 minutes from WVC to a small rocky gorge to view up close a troop of world-famous Bearded Capuchins, which use their own specially-selected igneous hammer rocks to smash open the very same kind of rock-hard, nutritious palm nuts that the Hyacinth Macaws love to eat. Viewing these nut-cracking monkeys is yet another SouthWild exclusive and delights our visitors. This nut-cracking behavior is the world's most complex tool use by any monkey species.

In the afternoon, we return to Wolf Valley Camp or perhaps to Wolf Cliffs Camp for one last visit with the Hyacinth Macaws or the Maned Wolves, respectively, though in 2024, the wolves might prove to be better at WVC than at WCC.

25. Quote Southwild 25 augustus - 11 september

**Regarding the SWP (SouthWild Pantanal) inquiries:

Yes, I've made arrangements for an English-speaking guide to accompany them.

In the morning, they can visit the howler monkeys, go on a boat excursion, and then, with the guide's assistance, choose between visiting either the Monkey Tower or the Jabirus Tower and stay there for as long as they'd like. After lunch, they can explore the walking trails. Before dinner, they have the option to visit the ocelot hiding place.

**As for the updated program, I'd like to know if they have a list of species they don't want to miss. This way, I can tailor the program accordingly.

**Regarding Wolf Camp, the local guide suggested visiting it in August as there's a risk of fires in September, which could drive off the wolves.

Below is the update program:

Day 1 – Barreiras – Wolf Camp – August 25, 2024

Upon landing at Barreiras, you will be met by Leilda, the adult daughter of the great wildlife expert, Lourival Lima, the project director. Leilda has guided in English for years now, and although her English is not perfect, she knows the wildlife so well that we are happy to work with her!. Drive in an air-conditioned vehicle for 150 miles north on an asphalt road to the scenic cliff and valley region of Wolf Camps. Lunch on your own before flying. Dinner included at Wolf Valley Camp.

Overnight at Wolf Valley Camp (-/-/D)

Day 2 – Wolf Valley Camp - Wolf Cliffs Camp – August 26, 2024

Coffee and light breakfast are served 0430h (4:30 am). Daybreak is at 5:30 am, and we aim to be seated in the Hyacinth “blind” (or “hide”) by that time, before the first macaws arrive to forage on rock-hard palm nuts at this dry forest clearing. The spacious blind can hold up to 10 people, with eight front row seats, and it looks out upon a traditional feeding site for a large flock of Hyacinth Macaws. We watch them feed on their staple, namely golf-ball-sized palm nuts, and playfully jockey for position on favorite perches in the trees that surround the blind. The birds usually arrive at 6 a.m. and leave by 8:30 or 9 a.m. We then return to camp for a full, relaxing breakfast.

After breakfast, we will embark on a 25 km, 50-min-long drive into the heart of the 1.7-million-acre Parnaíba River Headwaters National Park. Here, you'll have the opportunity to marvel at the stunning cliff scenery and seek out various bird species, including Burrowing Owls, Red-legged Seriemas, Greater Rheas, and nesting Blue-and-Yellow Macaws. In the evening, there's a good chance of encountering the beautiful and endangered Maned Wolf, which holds the title of the tallest wild canid in the world (though not the heaviest!).

Our accommodation for the night will be at SouthWild Wolf Cliffs Camp, the sole lodging within the national park. You'll stay in rustic but spacious bungalows, each equipped with en suite facilities.

Day 3, 4 – Wolf Camp – August 27, 28, 2024

The guests may decide to stay at Wolf Cliffs Camp another night, we might drive back to the Valley Camp. In some years, such as 2023, the wolf viewing is better at Wolf Valley Camp than at Wolf Cliffs Camp. The Wolf Valley Camp normally features good opportunities to view incredibly-cute Tufted-eared Marmosets and some fancy birds at a feeder at camp.

Day 5, 6 – Wolf Valley Camp – August 29, 30, 2024

On this day, we will drive 30 minutes from WVC to a small rocky gorge to view up close a troop of world-famous Bearded Capuchins, which use their own specially-selected igneous hammer rocks to smash open the very same kind of rock-hard, nutritious palm nuts that the Hyacinth Macaws love to eat. Viewing these nut-cracking monkeys is yet another SouthWild exclusive and delights our visitors. This nut-cracking behavior is the world's most complex tool use by any monkey species.

In the afternoon, we return to Wolf Valley Camp or perhaps to Wolf Cliffs Camp for one last visit with the Hyacinth Macaws or the Maned Wolves, respectively, though in 2024, the wolves might prove to be better at WVC than at WCC.

Day 7 – Wolf Camp – Barreiras – Belo Horizonte - Cuiaba – August 31, 2024

After breakfast, a chance to enjoy wildlife such as the Tufted-eared Marmosets or the Celeus woodpecker near the camp and then transfer 3.5 h to Barreiras airport (BRA) for your return flight to Cuiaba (CGB) the return is through Belo Horizonte (CNF). We suggest Azul flight number 5023, which departs Barreiras (BRA) at 1050h and arrives at Belo Horizonte (CNF) at 1305h. Stop 1h30m, connecting with Flight number 4256, which departs Belo Horizonte (CNF) at 1435h arriving Cuiaba at 1550h.

Upon arrival, take the free shuttle to the Hotel Slaviero.

Overnight at Hotel Slaviero ( B/-/-)

One forest walk and one boat outing per day are included, and we wait for the Ocelot in the early evening. Day 11 : Southwild Pantanal - September 4, 2024

Breakfast. Activities at the lodge, particularly boat rides on the Pixaim River to see abundant birdlife and the Ocelot Experience, and now, a new attraction. Specifically, In February 2024, we inaugurated another SouthWild Global Exclusive, the SouthWild Howler Monkey Experience. There are 15 species of Howler Monkeys in the world, and they are distributed from southern Mexico to SE Brazil. Despite the huge distribution of these howler species, there is only one location where you predictably can watch any of the 15 species from up close, and that is SWP. In our case, the species is the beautiful Black-and-Gold Howler Monkey. On 9 out of 10 mornings, a family of these howlers shows up between 6:30 am and 8:00 am at specific trees, and we can view them from only 5-6 meters for 10-15 minutes. Each morning, our howler research assistants wait in the forest, and if they see howlers approaching, they radio to the lodge, and guests have to be ready to board a boat for a 4-minute ride followed by a 5 minute walk.

Overnight at Southwild Pantanal. (B/L/D)

Er wordt ook aandacht besteed aan het milieuproject van de lodge, dat zich in een van de vijf belangrijkste biologische hotspots op aarde bevindt. In het Atlantische Regenwoud leven naar schatting 131 zoogdiersoorten en meer dan 800 vogelsoorten. Dit vormt de perfecte setting voor natuurreizigers, fotografen en vogelspotters.

Het bedreigde gouden leeuwaapje, een kleine primaat uit het Atlantisch regenwoud, heeft een wilde populatie van iets meer dan 2000 individuen, verspreid over enkele plekken in Zuidoost-Brazilië. Dit project is cruciaal voor de bescherming van de soort.

2. Chapada dos Guimarães

Gelegen op slechts 64 km van Cuiaba in Mato Grosso, treft u het majestueuze nationale park Chapada dos Guimarães aan. Dit park wordt gekenmerkt door zijn hoge bergplateaus (600 - 800 meter), millennia-oude rotsformaties en grotten, spectaculaire watervallen, schilderachtige wandelpaden en een rijke diversiteit aan flora en fauna. Het is een paradijs voor natuurliefhebbers en herbergt een van de zeldzaamste diersoorten van Brazilië, de 'Loboguará', ook bekend als de gemaande wolf. Ook vogelliefhebbers zullen gefascineerd zijn door de talloze unieke vogelsoorten die hier te vinden zijn.

Maar Chapada dos Guimarães biedt meer dan alleen adembenemende natuur. Het staat ook bekend om zijn archeologische en paleontologische rijkdom, waaronder talrijke prehistorische rotsschilderingen, waardoor het een interessante bestemming is voor geschiedenislijfhebbers. Daarnaast wordt de regio als heilig beschouwd door de inheemse bevolking en wordt het vaak geassocieerd met mystieke verhalen en ufologische verschijnselen, wat het een fascinerende bestemming maakt voor avontuurlijke reizigers en liefhebbers van folklore.

Het park biedt ook een scala aan activiteiten voor de avontuurlijke reiziger, van wandelen en vogels kijken tot raften en abseilen. Of je nu wilt ontspannen in de schoonheid van de natuur, de lokale cultuur wilt ontdekken, of een adrenaline-gevulde vakantie zoekt, Chapada dos Guimarães heeft het allemaal.

3. Pantanal-Noord

Cuiabá, gelegen in het hart van Brazilië, vormt de toegangspoort tot het noordelijke gedeelte van de Pantanal, dat bekend staat als de ultieme plek om jaguars te spotten.

Dit immense laagland, dat tijdens het regenseizoen (december - maart) grotendeels overstroomt, is het grootste moerasgebied ter wereld. Met een indrukwekkende oppervlakte van ongeveer 150.000 vierkante kilometer is de Pantanal meer dan vier keer zo groot als Nederland. Dit unieke gebied biedt weelderige vegetatie, ontelbare riviertjes en meren, en staat bekend om zijn uitzonderlijke fauna. Hier kunt u de zeldzame en elegante jaguar, wilde papegaaien, miereneters, wilde zwijnen, capibara's, zwarte kaaimannen en meer dan 600 verschillende vogelsoorten, waaronder de imposante jabiru, bewonderen. Een safari door deze bijzondere wildernis is een unieke ervaring en biedt volop mogelijkheden om zeldzame vogels en dieren te spotten en te fotograferen.

Een bezoek aan de Pantanal is zonder twijfel een hoogtepunt van elke reis. #### Beste reistijd voor de Pantanal:

Het Pantanal landschap varieert per seizoen, maar blijft steeds prachtig. De jaarlijkse neerslag bedraagt gemiddeld 1500mm, voornamelijk tussen november en maart.

NAT-seizoen (januari-maart): De zomerregens revitaliseren de flora en fauna, met prachtige waterlandschappen en een rijke dierenwereld.

TUSSEN-seizoen (april-juni): Na de regens vormen zich lagoons die een rijke voedselbron vormen voor watervogels. Het weer is milder en dieren worden actiever.

DROOG-seizoen (juli-oktober): Het ideale moment voor dierenobservatie, met velden die drogen en dieren die zich verzamelen rond waterbronnen.

REGEN-seizoen (november-december): Er valt veel regen, maar niet genoeg voor overstromingen. Dit seizoen is perfect voor vogelobservatie.

5. Paraty

Voordat Rio überhaupt nog belangrijk was, was Paraty één van de rijkste steden van Brazilië. Door de opkomst van Rio de Janeiro keerde het economische tij echter, waardoor de modernisering nooit echt op gang kwam. Daardoor is de authentieke koloniale architectuur behouden gebleven. De huisjes en hobbelige straatjes zijn nagenoeg identiek gebleven sinds de 17e eeuw. Een tour door Paraty is dan ook een reis door de geschiedenis van Brazilië.

Het historische dorpje Paraty ligt aan de kust op zo'n drie uur rijden van Rio de Janeiro en ligt midden op de route tussen Rio de Janeiro en São Paulo aan de 'Costa Verde', de groene kust. We bieden een prachtige self drive aan van Rio naar São Paulo, waarbij je Paraty aandoet. Uiteraard kunnen er ook transfers worden geregeld vanuit Rio. Vaak wordt Paraty gecombineerd met een bezoek aan Ilha Grande.

Paraty heeft een ruim aanbod aan bars, restaurants en er zijn tal van excursiemogelijkheden, zoals Schooner boottochten of met de kajak langs de vele mooie eilandjes voor de kust.

De actieve reiziger kan ook mooie wandel-, fiets-, paardrij tochten, en jeep tours beleven door het met watervallen doorspekte Atlantische regenwoud.

Hier zijn enkele restauranttips voor het historische centrum van Paraty:

Quintal das Letras:

Gelegen in de Pousada Literária, biedt dit restaurant zowel traditionele Braziliaanse gerechten als hedendaagse internationale keuken. De ambiance is zowel elegant als ontspannen.

Punto Divino:

Voor liefhebbers van Italiaans eten is dit een must-visit. Ze bieden heerlijke pizza's, pasta's en risotto's, allemaal bereid met verse ingrediënten.

Restaurante Banana da Terra:

Biedt traditionele Braziliaanse gerechten met een moderne twist. Het staat bekend om zijn gebruik van lokale ingrediënten en verse zeevruchten.

Bendita's Restaurante:

Gelegen in een charmant koloniaal huis, biedt Bendita's een mix van Braziliaanse en mediterrane keuken. Ze hebben ook een geweldige wijnkaart.

Café Paraty:

Ideaal voor een lichte lunch of een kopje koffie in de middag. Het café heeft ook heerlijke zoetigheden en is een populaire plek onder zowel toeristen als locals.

Margaret Atelie Gourmet:

Als je op zoek bent naar een intiemere eetervaring, biedt dit restaurant een menu met beperkte gerechten maar met veel aandacht voor detail en kwaliteit.

Camoka Lanches & Pastéis:

Voor degenen die iets snels en lokaals willen, zijn de pasteis (Braziliaanse pasteitjes) van Camoka een heerlijke keuze.

6. Pantanal - Southwild Pantanal

Kamer type: Standaard 2-persoonskamer

Maaltijd type: Volpension

Aantal nachten: 3

Aantal kamers: 1

De SouthWild Pantanal Lodge bevindt zich 2,5 km van de Transpantaneira Road, aan de beboste oevers van de Pixaim-rivier die rijk is aan wilde dieren. Met kamers voorzien van airconditioning en toegankelijke rivierbossen biedt SWP de beste waarde voor serieuze vogelaars, natuurliefhebbers en fotografen in de Pantanal. Ze bieden boottochten waarbij je de tamste Reuzenotters ter wereld kunt zien. Andere exclusiviteiten zijn de enige mobiele observatietorens in de Pantanal, strategisch gelegen bij vruchtdragende en bloeiende bomen, en stille, elektrische riviercatamarans voor fotografen die lange lenzen op statieven gebruiken. SWP biedt ook paardrijtochten, vee drijven, wandelingen op wetenschappelijk ontworpen bospaden, onderzoekslezingen, het spotten van zoogdieren, een sterrenkaart voor de studie van de spectaculaire nachtelijke hemel en Braziliaanse barbecues.

De lodge bestaat uit een grote, volledig afgeschermdde woonkamer/eetkamer met veel plafondventilatoren, buitenzitjes en een bibliotheek over de Braziliaanse natuur. Elk van de twaalf afgeschermdde gastenkamers heeft een eigen badkamer met warme douches, plafondventilatoren, airconditioning en een queensize bed of twee eenpersoonsbedden. Om plastic afval te vermijden, biedt de lodge nu gratis gekoeld drinkwater dat onbeperkt wordt verstrekt uit waterkoelers. Breng je eigen duurzame Nalgene-fles mee om bij te vullen.

De SouthWild Pantanal Lodge verbetert voortdurend zowel de hoeveelheid als de kwaliteit van de fantastische dierenobservaties. Je kunt het veld, het bos en de rivier op verschillende manieren verkennen: te paard, met boottochten, wandelingen op paden, mobiele observatietorens, elektrische fotocatarans en nachtelijke spotlighting vanuit onze speciale vrachtwagen met speciale foto-logistiek. De laatste drie zijn uniek voor onze lodges - geen enkele andere lodge in de Pantanal biedt ze aan. Opvallend is dat de lodge de enige observatietoren ter wereld heeft bij een nest van de Jabirustork. Dit 12 meter hoge platform is toegankelijk via een gebruiksvriendelijke spiraaltrap. De top van de toren bevindt zich op het niveau van het nest, dat slechts 15 meter verderop is. Onze speciaal opgeleide natuurgidsen hebben deze ooievaars jarenlang gewend gemaakt, zodat de vogels nu volledig de gasten negeren en al hun meest intieme nestgedrag in volledig zicht uitvoeren.

Inbegrepen in de tarieven: Volpension accommodatie, inclusief ontbijt, lunch en diner. Toegang tot het Ocelot Observatorium. Gebruik van de wandelpaden. Toegang tot twee observatietorens; een op 16 meter van het Tuiuíú-nest, de enige in zijn soort op de planeet, en een andere aan de oevers van de Pixaim-rivier. Een twee uur durende boottocht per dag. Voor gasten die 3 nachten verblijven, is een gratis 2 uur durende safari met de truck inbegrepen. Assistentie van het team van de herberg in het Portugees tijdens de opgegeven tijden. Een tweetalige natuurgids is niet inbegrepen. Mocht u er een nodig hebben, vraag ons dan naar de extra kosten.

Wanneer de SouthWild Pantanal Lodge bezoeken

De SouthWild Pantanal is het beste te bezoeken van mei tot december, waarbij elke maand zijn eigen voordelen biedt. De favoriete maanden zijn juni, juli en november, omdat het dan koeler is en de lucht helder is, zonder nevel die bijvoorbeeld de fotografie kan verstoren als een jaguar op meer dan 50 meter afstand is. Vanaf augustus begint het warmer te worden, en september en oktober zijn de heetste maanden van het jaar.

Elk jaar tussen 20 juli en 1 september vindt er een spectaculaire concentratie van duizenden reigers, ooievaars, kaaimannen en capibara's plaats bij de bruggen op kilometer 17 van de Transpantaneira. De piek van dit natuurfenomeen valt gemiddeld op 12 augustus. Afhankelijk van de hoeveelheid regen in de maanden december tot maart kan dit spektakel twee weken eerder of later plaatsvinden.

De massale bloei van de gele cambará-bomen vindt plaats eind juni tot begin juli. De bekende bloei van de felroze trompetbomen (Tabebuia rosea) duurt meestal 10 tot 15 dagen in augustus. De cambará-bomen bloeien in 8 van de 10 jaren goed, terwijl de trompetbomen slechts in 4 tot 5 van de 10 jaren bloeien, wat het altijd een beetje een gok maakt als je tijdens de bloei van de roze trompetbomen wilt verblijven. Ocelotten zijn het hele jaar door te zien, maar jaguars zijn het beste te spotten van juni tot november.

Seizoensgebondenheid:

- Groen, laagseizoen: 10 januari t/m 31 maart
- Tussenseizoen: 1 april t/m 14 juni en 1 november t/m 9 januari
- Hoogseizoen: 15 juni t/m 31 juli en 1 september t/m 31 oktober
- Super-piekseizoen: 1 t/m 31 augustus

De ruime eetzaal van de lodge biedt aan drie zijden plafondhoge schermen met onbelemmerd zicht op de omliggende bomen, velden en de Pixaim-rivier. Hierdoor kunnen overdag vele vogels worden gezien, zoals buff-halsbissen, Toco-toekans en kuifhokko's, en zoogdieren zoals capibara's, krabbenvossen, moerasreeën, reuzenotters, tapirs en soms zelfs een reuzenmierener of jaguar. De maaltijden worden in buffetvorm geserveerd, met een ruime keuze aan vegetarische en veganistische opties naast traditionele vleesgerechten. De eetruimte wordt gekoeld door een reeks plafondventilatoren.

Na jaren van ervaring met diverse koks, heeft SouthWild Pantanal nu de meest getalenteerde lokale chefs, die maaltijden bereiden die vaak beter zijn dan die in de beste restaurants van Cuiabá. De kwaliteit van de bereiding en kruiden overtreft ruimschoots die van andere lodges langs de Transpantaneira.

De lodge ligt op slechts 30 meter van de 70 meter brede Pixaim-rivier, die tussen juni en december stopt met stromen en meer op een meer lijkt dan op een rivier. Kaaimannen zonnebaden en schuilen onder de overhangende vegetatie langs de oever en worden regelmatig aangevallen door jaguars. In de nabijheid van de lodge zijn er 5 tot 6 verschillende jaguars die binnen 15 minuten varen langs de rivier kunnen worden gezien.

Het zwembad is klein, maar groot genoeg om baantjes te trekken. Het is ideaal voor een verfrissende duik tijdens de warme dagen. Van juni tot 20 augustus zijn de nachten koel, wat ook het water koel maakt. Tussen 20 augustus en 1 november is het Pantanal echter zo warm dat het zwembadwater vaak 28 graden Celsius of meer bereikt, wat uitnodigt tot lange, ontspannen baden.

7. Pantanal - Pousada Piuval

Kamertype: Standaard 2-persoonskamer

Maaltijd type: Volpension

Deze lodge ligt in de Pantanal aan de Transpantaneira. Dit is de onverharde weg die door dit prachtige natuurgebied gaat. Het is de eerste lodge die je tegenkomt op de Transpantaneira, dus het is op korte rijafstand van Cuiaba op ongeveer één uur rijafstand.

De 29 comfortabele kamers beschikken over airconditioning, minibar, plafondventilators, tv, wifi en een eigen badkamer. Tot de recreatieve faciliteiten behoren een zwembad, volleybalveld, speeltuin, mountainbikes en uitkijktorens. Gasten kunnen heerlijk ontspannen met een drankje aan de zwembad bar of in het restaurant genieten van verrukkelijke regionale Pantanal gerechten.

Er zijn diverse dagelijkse excursies zoals paardrijden, foto safari's, boottochten en wandeltours. In de omgeving kan je honderden soorten dieren, vogels en vissen zien.

Het verblijf is op basis van volpension met inbegrip van dagelijkse excursies en transfers van en naar Cuiabá.

Locatie:

Pousada Piuval ligt ongeveer 120 km ten zuidoosten van Cuiaba waar de Transpantaneira begint, een onverharde weg van 150 km die het hart van de noordelijke Pantanal doorsnijdt.

Om er te komen:

De transfer van Cuiaba naar de lodge duurt ongeveer 2½ uur. De route naar de lodge loopt langs Poconé, een 18e eeuwse goudmijnstadje. Vanaf Poconé is de laatste 10 km langs de Transpantaneira, een onverharde weg. De laatste 3 km naar de lodge gaan door seizoensgebonden overstromingsgebieden, en daarom zijn 4x4 transfers bij alle arrangementen inbegrepen.

Grootte en structuur van de lodge:

Behalve dat Pousada Piuval zijn "Pantaneiro" roots als werkende veehouderij heeft behouden, is het een solide middenklasse lodge met 29 ruime kamers in twee categorieën: 20 Standaard Tuinzicht kamers (25m<sup>2</sup>) met gedeelde veranda's, en 9 Deluxe Suites (36m<sup>2</sup>) met privé veranda's voorzien van hangmatten die uitkijken over de weilanden en uiterwaarden die de lodge omringen. Alle kamers zijn voorzien van split airconditioning, plafondventilatoren en douches met warm water. Met zijn aangename zwembad, speelkamer, biljart en kinderspeelplaats en volleybalveld is Piuval ook een zeer gezinsgerichte accommodatie. Het restaurant serveert maaltijden in buffetvorm en biedt een aangenaam uitzicht over de omliggende gazons, die zorgvuldig worden onderhouden door een familie capibara's, het grootste knaagdier ter wereld.

Unieke kenmerken:

Pousada Piuval is trots op een landgoed van 7000 ha dat een verscheidenheid aan landschappen omvat, van grasvlakten en intermitterende galerijbossen tot rivieren en lagunes. Hierdoor kunnen het hele jaar door boottochten worden gemaakt. Dit mozaïek van landschappen is een habitat voor een grote verscheidenheid aan wilde dieren, die tijdens de excursies uitgebreid aan bod komen. In het hart van deze natuurgebieden doorkruist een 450 m lange houten wandelbrug de moerassen naar een 15 m hoge uitkijktoren op een boseiland, de perfecte plek om de uitgestrektheid van de Pantanal te aanschouwen. De roze ipê boom, plaatselijk bekend als "Piuva" is een spektakel op zich en komt hier bijzonder veel voor, vandaar de naam van de lodge. Praktisch gezien ligt Pousada Piuval op slechts 120 km van Cuiaba en het feit dat de luchthaven van de stad in slechts 2 uur te bereiken is, kan van bijzonder belang zijn voor degenen die weinig tijd hebben.

De lodge heeft capaciteit voor ongeveer 18 bezoekers. De accommodatie ligt zeer rustig, midden in het Atlantisch regenwoud. Vila Mont beschikt over vrijstaande lodges voor twee personen, een centrale hoofdgebouw met keuken en verblijfruimte, een prachtige zeer vogelrijke tuin en een bosterrein erachter met een uitgebreide vogelrijkdom. Geniet er van het meest uitgebreide ontbijt van heel Brazilië. Het arrangement is op basis van halfpension, dus diner is ook inbegrepen. Het Ook kunt u in de lodge zelf eten klaar maken. Of de nationale cocktail Caipirinha. Er zijn verder twee natuurlijke zwembaden om in te zwemmen, met zulk schoon water dat je het kan drinken.

Het is opmerkelijk dat een dergelijke plek nog bestaat, relatief nabij de metropolen Rio de Janeiro en Sao Paulo. Beide steden zijn ongeveer 4 uur rijden, wat in Braziliaanse termen niet ver is. Vila Mont bevindt zich er precies tussenin, aan de Costa Verde, op het Caicara-schiereiland (Juatinga). Tijdens het verblijf kan de gids uiteraard ook een uitstapje inplannen naar het koloniale Paraty met zijn gezellige centrum met bars en restaurants.

Net over de berg, hemelsbreed op ongeveer 2 ½ km, ligt Saco de Mamangua, het grootste fjord van Brazilië, gezegend met oogverblindende stranden. Een stevige wandeling van ongeveer 2 uur brengt je hier naartoe.

Alles hier ademt puur natuur, inclusief een groente tuin, zonneboiler, meerdere open haarden, veranda's en terrassen, en natuurlijke zwembaden met kleine watervallen. Het zachte geluid ervan brengt je in een staat van diepe ontspanning. Het water, rechtstreeks afkomstig uit het kabbelende beekje, is zuiver en schoon (Boviswaarde ruim boven de 15.000). Wees welkom in Vila Mont!

* De arrangementen naar Vila Mont worden aangeboden met een Self-drive of met verzorgde transfers. Indien er gekozen wordt voor verzorgde transfers, dan zal de gids u rondrijden in de auto van de pousada naar de excursie punten. In dat geval is 1 volle tank inbegrepen in het complete arrangement. Bijtanken is voor kosten van de klant.

Excursies

Excursies inbegrepen

1. Atlantisch regenwoud - Activiteiten Eco Lodge Itororo (zonder Mico)

Eco Lodge Itororó biedt een verscheidenheid aan activiteiten die zijn inbegrepen in het arrangement. voor een actieve vakantie in het tropische regenwoud en de bergen, zoals vogelspotten, wandelen, wildleven, vogel- en landschapsfotografie. Het biedt ook de perfecte omgeving voor buitenreizigers die willen genieten van de rust van de natuur. Activiteiten omvatten onder meer 'Rainforest Impressions', een begeleide tour om de Gouden Leeuwaapjes te zien (optioneel bij te boeken, van tevoren doorgeven), wandeltochten naar de Porcelet en het Três Picos Park en vogelkijktours.

De ervaren natuurgids bespreekt met u exacte excursie volgorde bij aankomst en kan deze aanpassen op basis van uw wensen, bijvoorbeeld als u specifieke vogels wenst te spotten. Geef deze van tevoren door.

De paden bij Eco Lodge Itororó stellen bezoekers ook in staat op eigen houtje natuur te verkennen, inclusief een uitkijkpunt en een tuin met orchideeën en bromelia's. Er is een kans om vogels en fauna zoals toekans en tangaren te observeren. Zoogdieren spotten is uitdagend door hun schuwheid. Deze activiteit is minder geschikt voor mensen met mobiliteitsbeperkingen of ernstige gezondheidsproblemen.

2. Paraty - Vila Mont Lodge (Bird watching)

Tijdens het verblijf in Vila Mont heeft u de beschikking over een zeer goede natuur en bird guide, zoals bijvoorbeeld Chico, die tevens uw chauffeur is tot uw beschikking (inclusief). Dit is een lokale gids en zeer goede vogelaar, die de beste plekken kent en in overleg met u de komende dagen de excursie doelen kiest. Mocht Chico niet beschikbaar zijn, dan zijn er nog een aantal andere hele goede gidsen waaruit we kunnen kiezen.

U kunt daarbij kiezen uit het bezoeken van verschillende goede gebieden maar er is ook een mogelijkheid een reservaat met enkele zeldzaamheden in te gaan en te combineren met raften (niet wild maar relaxed) door een natuurgebied. Dat is een betaalde excursie die je ter plekke bij kan boeken. Verder is er een kolibrietuin, met een bescheiden entreeprijs (die soms niet eens gevraagd wordt) waar het zeer goed mogelijk is 6-9 soorten kolibries van zeer dichtbij te zien en/of fotograferen. Bovendien zijn er ook nog veel andere vogelsoorten te zien.

Door de centrale ligging tussen prachtige kusten en rijke natuurgebieden is dit een ideaal uitgangspunt voor meerdaagse arrangementen: Wandelen in en rond het historische plaatsje Paraty, een autorit langs de fraaie kust. (Een twee- of driedaagse trekking op het schiereiland Juatinga behoort ook tot de mogelijkheden (niet inclusief)).

Als fotografie uw hobby is maakt u hier de mooiste foto's van het historische Paraty, de kustlijn, het landschap en de vogels en andere dieren die u ziet. Een boottocht na een wandeling van zo'n 3 uurtjes brengt u langs de prachtige stranden en vergezichten van Saco de Mamangua (inclusief). U hoeft niet te speuren naar vogels, door de 'feeders' ziet u prachtige soorten rond uw vakantieverblijf. Chico kan u ook meenemen naar andere bijzondere plekken die wat hoger liggen in de Mata Atlantica. Meer dan 400 soorten zijn hier waargenomen, waarvan 100 alleen al in het Atlantische regenwoud voorkomen. De routes bevatten bezoeken aan verschillende leefgebieden via bospaden met een mogelijkheid om een grote hoeveelheid soorten te zien. De dagindeling wordt ter plekke besproken met de gids, waarin alle onderdelen aan bod zullen komen. Een dagje rust in Vila Mont is een must, om alle indrukken eens rustig op u te laten inwerken! Het is natuurlijk mogelijk om hier langer te verblijven, want U zult versteld staan wat deze omgeving U nog meer te bieden heeft!
